DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-24 and 31-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by DeAngelis et al (6,247,994).

Regarding claims 1-24 and 31-36, DeAngelis teaches an information processing/storage device capable of connecting a plurality of operation terminals that comprises a means for generating correlation information, a means for outputting the correlation information the operation terminals a display unit and value setting means (DeAngelis- abstract; Fig. 1; Fig. 2; Fig. 11; col. 9, lines 25-36).

Pertinent Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Shinohara et al teaches a controller with identifiers {correlation information}.
